WELCOME TO HOUSTON

“World-class cultural institutions, James Beard-recognized dining, reinvigorated urban spaces, hotels that surprise and delight—Houston has got them all.”
—Worth, July 2019

Welcome to the Culinary and Cultural Capital of the South. Whether you know it as Space City, Bayou City, Clutch City, Hustletown or the Energy Capital of the World – Houston’s got something for everyone – award-winning food, visual and performing arts, sports, recreation, and world-class shopping. It’s what you’d expect from the most diverse city in the country, with 2.3 million residents speaking 145 different languages in a sprawling metropolis that spans 669 square miles. This guide will give you the inside scoop on where the locals go.

Conde Nast Traveler says, “There are cities that claim to be melting pots, but they can’t compare to Houston.” The city’s mix of peoples and traditions has created a blockbuster, award-winning food scene that’s never been better. Recently, local eateries have been featured on Netflix’s Ugly Delicious and in Andrew Zimmern’s The Zimmern List. In 2019, the city had an impressive 11 James Beard Award semifinalists. Thrillist, concurs “Houston is a sweet symphony of cultures, so when it comes to food, the city arguably has it all.”

The arts and culture scene is equally vibrant. Houston boasts professional resident companies in ballet, opera, symphony, and theater; only four other U.S. cities can say the same. Just five minutes from downtown, you can see visual artists in their natural habitat at Sawyer Yards, 55 acres of warehouses in Arts District Houston that houses the studios of hundreds of working artists, making it one of the largest creative communities in the nation. Just across downtown in the East End, colorful street art and oversized murals create endless Instagrammable moments.

In the leafy Museum District, you'll find 19 cultural institutions set within blocks of one another – including the growing campus of the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston (make sure to take a selfie with Houston's own "Bean" – Anish Kapoor's "Cloud Column"). It's just the tip of the iceberg, with more than 500 arts organizations and 12,000 visual and performing artists in the region.

Over on the happening east side of Downtown (EaDo in the local parlance), take advantage of the mild weather and explore more than four miles of hike and bike trails along Buffalo Bayou that extend to the Port of Houston Turning Basin. The adjacent 150-acre East River waterfront development is coming together, mixing culture with commerce — including high-end retail and restaurants.

Your Houston adventure awaits. As Travel + Leisure says, "Black gold and Texas tea are what put Houston on the map, but if you visit Houston, you aren't going to look at oil derricks. Instead, its rich cultural offerings, exciting things to do, and laid-back Southern atmosphere will not only draw you in, they'll keep you there, too."

UNIQUELY HOUSTON

Houston is the only major American city that doesn't have land-use zoning laws. That means anything can be built anywhere: vintage clothing shops next to award-winning restaurants next to hospitals and high-rises. Live like a local and head off the beaten path for an authentic look at Houston in all its glorious jumble.

Main Street

The Art Car Museum is the only place you'll find the antennae-and-wing-cloaked Roachster or a Honda motorcycle that's been transformed into a shiny, red, rolling stiletto heel in this shrine to mobile artwork.

The Beer Can House, covered with more than 50,000 flattened beer cans, is a local art landmark and remains an odd bungalow in a sea of townhomes.

Buffalo Bayou Kayak Tours lets visitors paddle through the heart of the city on a two-person kayak adventure. Spot blue herons, loggerhead turtles and an occasional alligator sunning along bayou banks.

The majestic, 64-foot high Gerald D. Hines Water Wall, designed by renowned architects Philip Johnson and John Burgee, pour an impressive 78,500 gallons of recycled water down the structure's black obsidian walls. Adjacent to the Galleria, this is the perfect spot for selfies, shopping breaks, and al fresco picnics.

Go back in time at The Heritage Society and Sam Houston Park, a historic village in the shadow of downtown Houston's skyline, with structures dating from 1823 to 1905, plus a museum building with fascinating historical exhibits.

As the sun is setting, drop into artist James Turrell's Twilight Epiphany Skyspace, located on the Rice University campus. This free exhibit plays with light and space to alter the viewer's perception of the sky.

The National Museum of Funeral History proudly holds the title of the nation's largest display of historic funeral service memorabilia and artifacts, including a 1920s hearse and a brightly colored "fantasy coffin".

The Orange Show, a national folk-art landmark in the East End, took about 25 years for mailman and owner Jeff McKissack to create. This orange-themed, maze-like monument was made using concrete, brick, steel and anything else he could find. Don't miss the adjacent Smither Park, a funky, fun-filled green space with an amphitheater, meditation garden and pavilion. Lots of Instagrammable moments here.

With 39 historic structures set on five city blocks, the nonprofit Project Row Houses offers a place for local artists to learn and work – and in some cases, live.

The Waugh Drive Bat Colony, located just under the bridge between Allen Parkway and Memorial Drive near downtown, is home to millions of bats. At sunset, they take off from under the bridge in one huge group. For the best view, stake your place on the observation deck located on the corner of Waugh Drive and Allen Parkway.

#1 Houston Firsts

The city is named for Sam Houston, the first president of the Republic of Texas. (Visit the site of Houston's 1836 founding at Allen's Landing downtown.)

The Port of Houston ranks first in the United States in international waterborne tonnage handled. (Book a ticket for the M/V Sam Houston Tour Experience – a free, 90-minute round trip, educational tour along the Houston Ship Channel.)

The Astrodome, nicknamed, "The Eighth Wonder of the World." opened in 1965 as the world's first indoor domed sports stadium. Enjoy a Dome Faux'm cream ale – a tribute to the stadium's beverage – at 8th Wonder Brewery.

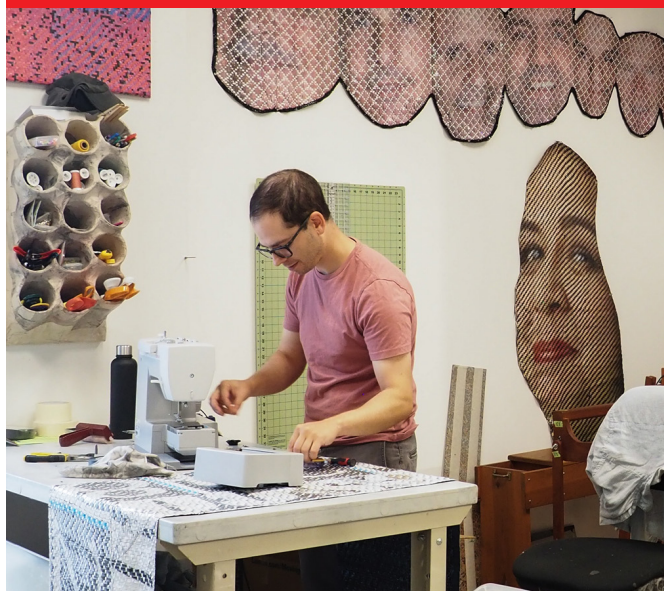

KUHT (Houston Public Media) is a PBS member station and was the first public television station in the United States. (Tours are available at the station, located on the UH Main Campus).

The first successful human heart transplant was performed in Houston by Dr. Denton Cooley in 1968. (Enjoy a bird's eye view of the Texas Medical Center at Third Coast, an upscale New American restaurant located on the top of one of the center's parking garages.)

In 1969, "Houston" was the first word spoken from the moon. The Apollo 11 mission established a place in history for the city when astronaut Neil Armstrong spoke the now-famous line, "Houston, Tranquility Base here. The Eagle has landed." (Learn more at Space Center Houston.)

Downtown Aquarium HOUSTON CityPASS

Part restaurant, part exhibit, the aquarium features tanks filled with stingrays, sharks and other exotic marine life. Themed habitats include the Louisiana Swamp exhibit, filled with dwarf gators, crawfish and snapping turtles, as well as the Shipwreck and Sunken Temple exhibits.

Fresh Tap Tours

With more than 40 breweries crafting unique blends across the city, it can be tough to know where to start. Fresh Tap Tours takes care of the planning, offering beer aficionados a one-stop bus ride to and from three breweries, with tours, tastings, snacks and a designated driver included in the four-to-five-hour trek.

The Health Museum

Part of the world-renowned Texas Medical Center and a Smithsonian Affiliate, The Health Museum provides the ultimate journey inside the body. Explore giant sculptures of human organs, ribs and even teeth. Don't miss the DeBakey Cell Lab for family-friendly genetic experiments.

Historic Pleasure Pier

This favorite Galveston Island attraction stretches approximately 1,130 feet over the Gulf of Mexico — more than three football fields in length — and provides the waterside community with family-oriented attractions, including games, 16 rides, retail shops and dining options.

Holocaust Museum Houston

Dedicated to educating people about the Holocaust and remembering the six million Jews and other innocent victims, this unique facility houses a permanent exhibition called "Bearing Witness: A Community Remembers." The roles of collaborators, by-standers, rescuers and liberators are portrayed through artifacts, film reels, photographs and text panels. The museum has recently reopened after a $33.8 million expansion.

Houston Museum of Natural Science HOUSTON CityPASS

This multilevel destination highlights the Earth's wonders in world-class touring exhibitions. The museum also makes room for the Wortham IMAX Theatre screen, Cockrell Butterfly Center, Burke Baker Planetarium, and Paleontology Hall.

Houston Polo Club

Tucked away in Houston's sprawling Memorial Park in the heart of the city, the Houston Polo Club isn't just for polo players and horses. Guests can enjoy the final matches of fall and spring tournaments on Sunday afternoons. Individual tickets on the covered Red Oak Lawn are available for $30, or $15 for children ages 12 and under. If you'd like a more private affair, boxes are an option.

Bayou Bend Collection and Gardens

The former home of Houston philanthropist Ima Hogg, designed by John Staub, now houses the Museum of Fine Arts' early-American decorative arts and painting collection. Outside, on the property's 14 lush acres, is the largest organic historic public garden in the state. Don't miss The Shop at Bayou Bend, inside the Lora Jean Kilroy Visitor and Education Center.

Children's Museum of Houston HOUSTON CityPASS

The most-attended children's museum of its size in the nation serves more than one million people annually. Bring the kids to enjoy all 90,000 square feet of jam-packed, hands-on exhibits and educational fun.

Houston Zoo HOUSTON CityPASS

Walk on the wild side with 6,000 animal residents. The 55-acre zoo fosters an appreciation for the ecosystems of the natural world. Nearby, Hermann Park Pavilion invites visitors to tour the park on a miniature train or cruise on the duck pond in a pedal boat.

IFLY Houston

Want to skydive but not excited about jumping from a perfectly good airplane? Visit either of the two area skydiving facilities, which gives guests a chance to feel the rush without the risk.

Kemah Boardwalk HOUSTON CityPASS

Head south of Houston to the 35-acre Kemah Boardwalk and dine overlooking Galveston Bay. Enjoy live music, shopping, games and train rides, as well as the popular Boardwalk Bullet roller coaster.

Lone Star Flight Museum

Located at Houston's Ellington Field Airport, the $38 million facility includes two large hangars, housing more than 40 historically-significant aircraft, including the B-17 Flying Fortress, a North American B-25 and P-47 Thunderbolt.

Miller Outdoor Theatre

On mild evenings, it's hard to top a professional (and free) show at Miller Outdoor Theatre, located in Hermann Park. Celebrating its 96th year, the amphitheater, with both covered and hillside seating, is the perfect place to catch classical music, ballet and theater performances from your blanket – with your picnic basket, of course.

Moody Gardens

Within Galveston Island's three glistening glass pyramids lie the IMAX 3-D Theater, Special FX-4D Theater and RideFilm Theater. Wildlife is on display in the Rainforest, Aquarium and Discovery pyramids. Outdoor fun includes a paddleboat ride on the bay and a man-made beach.

Museum of Fine Arts Houston HOUSTON CityPASS

One of the premier art museums in the United States, the MFAH anchors the Museum District with exhibitions of art from major civilizations and antiquity to the present. A $450 million expansion project is underway and is expected to be completed by 2020.

Sam Houston Race Park

Celebrate the spirit and elegance of Thoroughbreds and Quarter Horses with live and simulcast racing. Watch from a grandstand, a pavilion, or one of several suites with trackside views. The park also hosts concerts at the Showgrounds live music venue.

Schlitterbahn Galveston Island Waterpark

Just a short drive from Houston, Schlitterbahn is open all year long. The action-packed park features 31 aquatic adventures for summer and 12 indoor attractions during the heated indoor season.

Space Center Houston HOUSTON CityPASS

More than 400 things to see and do await at Space Center Houston, Houston's first Smithsonian Affiliate and the Official Visitors Center of NASA Johnson Space Center. Discover real, flown spacecraft and Robonauts; even touch a moon rock.

JOIN THE FANS CHEERING HOUSTON'S HOME TEAMS

Houston loves its athletes, and rightly so. At any given time, you can find them on and off the court and field, giving back to the community and making a difference. Come for a game and experience a spectacle, with music and dance, acrobatic cheerleading, salutes to veterans and community groups, fan contests – all in addition to the game itself.

Houston Dynamo

Houston Astros

2019 American League Division and 2017 World Series champs play at Minute Maid Park downtown, where a retractable roof affords open-air seating on beautiful Houston evenings and air conditioning on warm summer days. Hungry? Fan favorite foods include Jackson Street Barbecue and Shake Shack.

Houston Dynamo and Dash

Don't miss seeing the Houston Dynamo and Houston Dash play in the open-air BBVA Compass Stadium – conveniently located on the METRORAIL Purple and Green lines. Spectators enjoy unobstructed views from both lower and upper seating bowls, modern sound and video technology as well as fully integrated broadcast facilities. The food offerings were completely upgraded last year.

Houston Outlaws

The city's got Esports, too. The Houston Outlaws Overwatch Esports team competes in the Overwatch League (OWL) as a member of the league's Atlantic South Division. Founded in 2017, Houston Outlaws is one of the league's 12 founding members and is one of two professional Overwatch teams based in Texas. Matches are played at Revention Music Center downtown. All the details can be found at www.outlaws.overwatchleague.com.

Houston Rockets

Watch Red Nation go wild for the Rockets' lay ups and dunks in downtown's 18,300-seat Toyota Center. During breaks, don't miss the T-shirt cannons, shot competitions, the Space City Seniors or the Rockets Power Dancers' halftime performances.

Houston Roughnecks

Houston is one of eight inaugural cities of the new NFL professional football league. The Houston Roughnecks play at the University of Houston's TDECU Stadium. Currently, the league season runs from February to April, with a total of 10 games. Check www.xfl.com/teams/houston for ticket information.

Houston Texans

Cheer on the NFL's Houston Texans – the 2018-2019 AFC South Champions – at NRG Stadium, where it's Bulls on Parade. The indoor/outdoor venue features a new surface and a retractable roof. Go early and join the tailgating fun. Gates open four hours prior to kickoff. Don't forget to pack your red-and-blue foam koozie and Texans tee.

Houston SaberCats

Rugby is one of the fastest-growing sports in America, with popularity that stretches from coast to coast – with clubs for men, women and children. The SaberCats are Houston's professional Major League Rugby team, and their beautiful, brand-new AVEVA Stadium is part of Houston Sports Park south of downtown Houston.

SHOPPING

HOUSTON — THE INTERNATIONAL SHOPPING DESTINATION

Explore Houston's diverse shopping scene – from luxury boutiques and famous department stores to homegrown favorites. You'll find expansive malls, outdoor shopping plazas, and neighborhood districts brimming with retail treasures.

The Galleria

This monument to consumerism, set among the office towers of Uptown Houston, contains more than 400 stores and restaurants—most of them national names you'll know, including anchor stores Neiman Marcus, Saks Fifth Avenue, Nordstrom and Macy's. Cool off with a spin around the ice rink or grab a bite at Nobu Houston, The Cheesecake Factory, Del Frisco's Steakhouse, Fig & Olive and Shake Shack.

River Oaks District

This luxury, outdoor shopping plaza just inside The Loop boasts the biggest names in fashion, plus buzzy restaurants and a swanky movie theatre – iPic. Stroll around the district and you'll find Cartier, Dior, Harry Winston and more. Your dining options include Steak 48, Le Colonial and newish MAD, where friendly faces enjoy Spanish cuisine and cocktails in a glamorous dining room (reservations required).

Highland Village

Here's an outdoor shopping center where you can while away the day. Explore high-end national fashion and décor chains, plus a large Apple Store and Sprinkles, a cupcake bakery serving sweet treats from a vending machine. Local Tex-Mex favorite Escalante's is the perfect resting point, with delicious nachos and margaritas.

Historic Heights

Small-town charm is the theme of this neighborhood. Antiques, art and vintage shopping for men and women are centered on 19th Street. Be sure to check out the Heights Waterworks – with vegan restaurant Verdine and Hopdoddy Burger Bar. A few blocks away, the walkable Heights Mercantile development on Yale and 6th streets mixes local and national retailers and eateries, including local favorites LOCAL Foods and Cloud 10 Creamery.

Rice Village

Houston's original walkable shopping and dining district is blocks away from Rice University. Casual local restaurants, coffee shops, bookstores, wine cafés and hole-in-the-wall international joints sit side-by-side with independent shops and trendy chain stores. If you can't find it in the Village, it probably doesn't exist.

Upper Kirby

Fashion peaks at the corner of Kirby Drive and Westheimer Road. In The Shops at Arrive, you'll find local luxury women's shop Tootsies, plus Suit Supply for men. Cross the street and visit gift and fashion emporium Sloan/Hal. Just up Kirby, make time to stop in at Kuhl-Linscomb, a complex of retail spaces that offers the best in jewelry, candles, outdoor furniture, linens, lighting, tabletop, and more.

River Oaks Shopping Center

Would you like some history with your purchase? The Art Deco River Oaks Shopping Center has been delighting shoppers for decades. Shop a mix of national and local retailers, along with two Starbucks located directly across the street from each other. If you have time, take in an art movie at the historic River Oaks Theatre.

Memorial City Mall

Here are 265 acres of shopping, dining and fun in the heart of West Houston's family-friendly Memorial neighborhood. Memorial City Mall features Texas's highest-performing Macy's, as well as Zara, the Apple Store and Houston's only American Girl Store.

City Centre

Set among office towers and hotels, West Houston's premiere mixed-use development features prominent national retailers and a mix of eateries, plus a large green space for kids to play. For a local touch, grab a coffee and dessert at Fellini and Sweet Paris.

Uptown Park

This European-style shopping village on the West Loop caters to high-end shoppers and an international crowd. Designer clothes, jewelry, menswear and home accessories are among the many treasures you'll discover here. There's a nice mix of restaurants, too, from casual to high-end, with cuisines from across the globe.

Houston Premium Outlets

This designer discount mall in suburban Cypress, off of Highway 290, offers more than 145 stores, including Tory Burch, Theory and Escada.

Katy Mills Mall

Good deals are only a short drive away. Twenty-five miles west of downtown, Katy Mills brings together retail and entertainment under one roof. Neiman Marcus Last Call and Saks Off Fifth share space with Banana Republic, Sun & Ski Sports, Nike Factory Store, Oakley, Cole Haan and dozens of outlet stores.

Sugar Land

Find a mix of retail, restaurants, services and hotel accommodations at Sugar Land Town Square, a planned development in this booming suburb. It was named the "Best Place to Hang Out" by the University of Houston – Sugar Land. Go see for yourself.

The Woodlands

Speaking of suburbs, north of Houston is where you'll find The Woodlands Town Center. It's home to the al fresco-minded Market Street (Tiffany, Robert Graham) and The Woodlands Mall – a two-level retail complex with more than 160 stores. Expect endless dining options, as well as big retail names like Anthropologie, Nordstrom, Vineyard Vines, Godiva, the Apple Store and James Avery.

ARTS & CULTURE

ON THE STAGES AND IN THE MUSEUMS, BRAVO

IT'S NO TEXAS BOAST: Houston is serious about the arts. The city features one of the nation's largest museum districts and serves as one of the few American cities with resident professional companies in ballet, opera, symphony and theater.

The 17-block downtown theater district is home to Houston Grand Opera, Alley Theatre, Houston Symphony and Houston Ballet, all consistently presenting Grammy, Tony and Emmy award-winning performances.

Other area performing arts organizations include Society For The Performing Arts and Theatre Under The Stars, the nation's largest nonprofit producer of musical theater. Minutes away, in Midtown, check out the calendar lineup at MATCH. This state-of-the-art visual and performing arts venue opened in 2015 and plays host to more than 50 area arts groups including DiverseWorks, Main Street Theater and River Oaks Chamber Orchestra. Nearby is the famed Ensemble Theater, presenting African American artistic expression since 1976.

VISUAL ARTS

The Museum District's anchor and the nation's sixth-largest art museum – Museum of Fine Arts, Houston – continues to undergo a tremendous campus expansion, with new exhibition, conservation and education spaces, and a master plan that knits together a century's worth of signature architectural structures.

The nearby Contemporary Arts Museum Houston celebrates post-modern artwork inside its distinctive stainless-steel space. The leafy, campus-like Menil Collection, one of the most important private museums in the world, is also not to be missed.

HANDS-ON LEARNING

The Houston Center for Contemporary Craft features rotating exhibits of local and national fiber, textile, furniture, glass, ceramics and metal artists, plus working studios that are open to the public for interaction with resident artists.

The educational exhibits at Houston Museum of Natural Science unfold within a four-level complex. Do not miss the museum's Wortham IMAX Theater or the Cockrell Butterfly Center.

The Health Museum inspires passion and curiosity in health, the medical sciences, and the human body through educational programming with permanent and traveling exhibits.

ART ON CAMPUS

Rice University and The University of Houston also offer plentiful arts and culture. Rice's Moody Center For The Arts focuses on presenting work by world-recognized artists that fosters conversations across disciplines. At UH's Blaffer Gallery, viewers find a rotating mix of work by U.S. and international artists. The programming at UH's Cynthia Woods Mitchell Center for the Arts is dedicated to ground-breaking, transformational collaborations across the performing, visual, and literary arts.

IN HOUSTON

Did you know that some of your favorite movies may have been filmed right here in the Bayou City? With its diverse neighborhoods and varied topography, the city is right at home in any urban, suburban or even rural shooting setting.

Let's start with the Academy Award-winning Terms of Endearment. You can find Aurora Greenway's house still standing (3060 Locke Lane), as well as the garage apartment that Flap and Emma rented (1148 Heights Boulevard). Want to recreate Shirley MacLaine and Jack Nicholson's lunch scene? Then head on over to the famed Brennan's creole restaurant at 3300 Smith Street in midtown and ask to be seated at the same table. (The Evening Star, the sequel to Terms, was also shot in Houston).

Houston-born filmmaker Richard Linklater spent part of his own boyhood in Houston, which served as much of the backdrop for his film Boyhood (2014), filmed over 12 years, following the same actors. Shooting locations include Minute Maid Park (501 Crawford), Miller Outdoor Theatre (6000 Hermann Park Drive), the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston (1001 Bissonnet St.) and the Houston Museum of Natural Science (5555 Hermann Park Drive).

Sci-fi lovers will recognize the Wortham Theater Center (501 Texas Avenue) as Robocop 2's (1990) Civic Centrum, as well as the Alley Theater (615 Texas Avenue) starring as the "Omni Consumer Products Corporation" -- with downtown Houston standing in for dystopian metropolitan Detroit. Additionally, the third Transformers movie, Dark Side of Moon (2011), was partially shot at the Lyndon B. Johnson Space Center (2101 E. NASA Pkwy). In the movie, when a spacecraft carrying a key invention crashes on the moon, it is the control center in Houston that leads the mission to recover the ship.

Gen Xers will have fond memories of Reality Bites (1994), shot in and around Montrose and downtown Houston. The fourplex where Winona Ryder lived is still standing (409 W. Clay Street). Tranquility Park (Rusk at Walker Street) is where Troy (Ethan Hawke) educated Lelaina (Ryder) on the many jobs he's been fired from over the years.

Finally, no movie tour is complete without mentioning Rushmore, directed by Houston's own Wes Anderson. His high school alma mater, St. John's School (2401 Claremont Lane), stood in for the movie's Rushmore Academy. In an example of art mirroring life, the public Lamar High School, across the street from St. John's (3325 Westheimer Road), was used to depict the movie's Grover Cleveland High School. The protagonist's father's hair-cutting business, "Bert's," is really Doug's Barber Shop (219 East Eleventh Street) in the Heights. It's still open if you need a trim.

Where the Locals Eat

Houston's dining scene has never been hotter or more adventurous. You can find virtually every world cuisine within the city limits. But where do locals go for reliable, delicious and iconic "Houston" fare? Here's the inside scoop:

Antone's

Since 1962, Antone's has been serving up their famous po' boys – The Official Sandwich of Houston. Filled with meat, cheese, sweet pickles and "chowchow" cabbage relish– they're in the city's food DNA. Locations all over town.

Barbecue Inn

This Garden Oaks mainstay has been serving up delicious barbecue since 1946, as well as arguably the city's best fried chicken and fried shrimp, in a comforting time-warp of a setting.

Brennan's

Now in its 53rd year serving up Texas-Creole cuisine, Brennan's is the elegant, go-to dining destination for joyful celebrations, the sealing of business deals, and daily fine dining. Here's a tip: The martinis are just .25¢ at lunch.

Cleburne Cafeteria

This family-owned, West University neighborhood favorite dates to 1941. Everything on the menu is made fresh with ingredients from local farmers markets. Save room for the world-famous desserts – made daily by their bakery chef.

Crawfish and Noodles

Located in Houston's Chinatown along Bellaire Boulevard, Crawfish and Noodles is popular with area chefs and foodies alike. Why? The Viet-Cajun crawfish, a spicy Houston mashup that's been featured on the Travel Channel as well as on Netflix's Ugly Delicious.

DaMarco

This beautiful, award-winning Montrose mainstay features gourmet Tuscan dishes and a vast selection of fine wines in a chic atmosphere. It's one of the few fine restaurants in Houston that suggests jacket attire for gentlemen.

Frenchy's

Houston's favorite fried chicken (since 1969) – along with dirty rice and jambalaya – uses old, New Orleans family recipes to delight generations of locals. Several locations around town.

Fung's Kitchen

This cavernous Sharpstown favorite offers a vast array of Chinese dishes, as well as daily dim sum. Six aquariums near the entrance showcase various types of live seafood that the restaurant serves.

Goode Co. Barbecue

For more than 40 years on Kirby Drive, Goode Co. Barbecue has been serving up delicious smoked meats, serious sides and famous pecan pies (which are traditional Houston holiday gifts). For live music, check out their Armadillo Palace across the street.

Hugo's

Stop in for authentic Mexican cuisine by James Beard Award-winning chef Hugo Ortega, hand-shaken margaritas, and a festive atmosphere – including a lively patio. Don't miss their legendary Sunday brunch buffet.

The Original Ninfa's on Navigation

"Mama Ninfa" Laurenza invented fajitas here in 1973, and today the restaurant, serving Tex-Mex cuisine and frosty margaritas, continues to delight locals, politicians, celebrities and even visiting royalty.

Paulie's

This casual Montrose neighborhood joint offers some of the best Italian food in town, with homemade pasta served daily. Be sure to order the spaghetti and meatballs – but save room for Paulie's famous iced shortbread cookies.

Star Pizza

Consistently voted Houston's Best Pizza since 1976, Star is known for its Margherita Pizza, Joe's Pizza (sautéed spinach in garlic plus fresh garlic), and the Chicken Alfredo Pizza (with chicken, gorgonzola cheese, mushrooms and onions). They also have a daily lunch buffet.

Tony's

Houston's most elegant restaurant since 1965, Tony Vallone and his staff are the masters of Italian flavors. In fact, the restaurant has served seven sitting presidents, in addition to generations of Houstonians. Pro tip: The two-course Express Business Lunch is just $22.

Turkey Leg Hut

Always crowded, always hopping, this is the home of the world-famous stuffed turkey leg. Stuffed with what, you ask? Dirty rice, or maybe jumbo grilled shrimp and Cajun alfredo sauce. How about stuffed with Cajun crawfish mac & cheese? They open at 11 a.m. You'll want to get there early.

Drink Like A Local

Houston is blessed with a variety of neighborhood dives, funky icehouses and off-the-beaten path drinkeries. Want to imbibe like a Houstonian? Raise your glass at the following local institutions.

Dirt Bar

If you're downtown, seeing a show at House of Blues, kill some time at Dirt Bar across the street. Cocktail classics plus rock and roll and metal music keep the crowd coming back. Headlining musicians are known to duck into Dirt Bar themselves, so keep your eyes peeled.

Grand Prize Bar

This two-story Montrose house on Banks Street attracts local hipsters with craft cocktails, a full kitchen, and trivia nights.

Griff's

This Montrose Irish pub and sports bar (the city's oldest sports bar) is tucked away in the eclectic neighborhood. Order beer by the pitcher, watch sports on TV or come for karaoke night.

Neil's Bahr

Over in bustling EaDo, Neil's Bahr is the Houston dive that most resembles a basement, thanks to the comic book library, playable Nintendo and Sega consoles, and an array of classic arcade and board games. They also have movie nights and video game tournaments.

Lola's Depot

Possibly the diviest dive that ever dived, Lola's purple-painted house is unmarked, but unmistakable. The graffiti-and-bumper-sticker decor is a visual assault. Lola's has a double happy hour which runs 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. to 11 p.m., offering beer and cocktails for a mere $1.75.

Notsuoh

Its name is "Houston" spelled backwards, and that's only where the weirdness begins. This eccentric establishment on Main Street serves as a bar/art/music/poetry/chess venue so come ready for anything, including inexpensive drinks.

Poison Girl Cocktail Lounge

Pretty much a guaranteed good time. The closed-off back patio with an iconic Kool-Aid man statue and daily happy hour specials like $2.00 wells cement Poison Girl as a Montrose institution.

Warren's Inn

Since 1978, this historic Market Square landmark has been serving up generous pours at cheap prices to a diverse downtown crowd. There's a great jukebox to accompany your revelry.

West Alabama Icehouse

An open-air drinking emporium since 1928, locals flock to the icehouse's patios for cold beers, hot dogs and tacos from the neighboring taco truck. Bikers, hipsters and frat crowds welcome.

ANYTHING BUT ORDINARY

AN EXPERIENCE SO UNIQUELY REFINED THERE CAN ONLY BE ONE.

NIGHTLIFE

THE FUN DOESN'T END WHEN THE SUN GOES DOWN

HOUSTON COMES ALIVE AT NIGHT with centrally-set performance venues, laid back lounges and linger-worthy bars, so no matter what scene you're seeking, you're sure to find it here.

JR's Bar and Grill

Downtown and Midtown

Houston's central business district is booming with bars, clubs and lounges. Market Square is the epicenter for fun. Start your night at Secret Garden, a stunning retreat for a drink, located outside of Bravery Chef Hall, in a tiny glass greenhouse with a large patio. Feeling generous? Stop by OKRA Charity Saloon, a co-op founded by industry vets to pursue community and charitable initiatives. Get your tropical tiki fix (order the Painkiller) at Kanaloo and enjoy their Korean-fusion snacks. In Midtown, enjoy serious cocktails in the divey Two Headed Dog or try Social Beer Garden HTX with its hammock garden, dog-friendly patio, and classic arcade games.

Montrose

Traditionally home to "alternative" nightlife and the city's LGBTQ club scene, Montrose is where you'll find longtime LGBTQ watering hole JR's Bar and Grill, plus Rudyard's live music venue. In the mood for a boozy drag brunch? Then Boheme is your place. The Toasted Coconut is a newish full-service tiki bar and kitchen with an outdoor palapa and "adult sandbox." For highbrow craft cocktails, head to Anvil Bar and Refuge. Looking for a casual patio bar with craft beer, tasty cocktails and coastal Mexican food? Check out LaGrange.

River Oaks and West University

In between these two affluent neighborhoods, you'll find Red Lion British Pub, a dark tavern serving pints and Indian fare. Marfreless, hidden away in the River Oaks Shopping Center, serves as a private, dimly lit speakeasy. Over in West University, grab a burger and some wine at Simone on Sunset, drink in the Mexican tiki bar vibe at Under the Volcano or enjoy a whopper of a Long Island Iced Tea at the legendary Marquis 2.

The Heights

One of Houston's most historic neighborhoods has quickly evolved into a top nightlife destination. Chill out on the patio at Onion Creek with cold local beer and great food. Brush up on your bingo skills at SPJST Lodge 88 or enjoy classic cocktails and tunes at Johnny's Gold Brick. The Ready Room is a cool speakeasy bar on White Oak Blvd. There's no sign, but it's right next door to Ritual, a hip beer-and-beef joint.

Uptown/Galleria

This corporate neighborhood knows how to party. Start off with a cocktail upstairs at Le Colonial in River Oaks District for the nightly people watching party. The Tasting Room at Uptown Park offers more than 150 wines by the glass and bottle, along with truffle fries, charcuterie boards and pizzas. Or go full-on dive at The West End, a dog-friendly beer joint with a fun happy hour.

Washington Ave./Arts District Houston

Just outside downtown, this corridor is geared toward young professionals and neighborhood residents alike. The Porch Swing Pub is a chill spot featuring dozens of beers on tap, plus casual pub food and a large patio. MAX's Wine Dive is an intimate spot serving upscale comfort food as well as champagne and cocktails. For some of the best craft cocktails in town (and a very cool atmosphere), make plans for drinks at Julep.

Hear It LIVE Here

Houston was touted by Travel + Leisure for its terrific live music scene. Wondering where to find the best shows in town? Read on.

Anderson Fair Retail Restaurant

This Montrose folk and acoustic mainstay has been featuring original singer-songwriters from Texas, the US and the world since 1969.

Armadillo Palace

This Texas-loving bar features a 4,000-square-foot dance hall venue. Catch around 80 live shows a year at Armadillo featuring local artists and classic crooners.

Continental Club

Smack dab in the middle of Midtown on Main Street, this Austin import has a distinctive Houston attitude. The venue offers its classic neon and red velvet stage to regular bands and cover artists alike.

Heights Theater

This renovated historic venue right in the heart of The Heights on 19th Street features national and regional touring acts. Recent shows have included Meshell Ndegeocello, Joe Ely, Shinyribs and Lee Ann Womack.

House of Blues

Firmly planted in the middle of Downtown, the HOB brings a healthy dose of emerging artists and seasoned acts to H-Town. You'll find major acts like Robert Earl Keen and Queensryche, as well as indie rock groups.

Last Concert Café

This incognito Tex-Mex café downtown is also a rocking live music venue with vast outdoor concert space. Stop in for the Wednesday Night Drum Circle.

McGonigel's Mucky Duck

A hotspot for singer-songwriters (mostly of the country and folk persuasion), the Duck is just as much Irish pub as it is music hall. Dig into fare from across the pond and see shows by such Texas artists as Patrice Pike and Bob Schneider.

Rockefeller's

Housed in a former bank on Washington Ave., Rockefeller's is a live music and event space where you can catch The Reverend Horton Heat and other Texas acts.

Warehouse Live

EaDo's Warehouse Live is a live music and event venue featuring local and touring indie bands, tribute acts, festivals and all-ages shows.

White Oak Music Hall

Just minutes from downtown, WOMH opened in 2016, offering up rising-star acts and national names on an expansive outdoor stage. Sweeping city views add to the site's appeal.

HOTELS AT YOUR SERVICE

Houston's luxury hotel game has never been stronger. The city's lodgings and their services are sure to impress even the most seasoned traveler. Private chefs, fun classes, and outrageous spa services abound.

The Post Oak Hotel

Four Seasons Hotel Houston

In addition to a full-service spa, the Four Seasons Hotel Houston offers wellness services, including yoga sessions, meditation workshops and the following:

- High-energy, soccer-inspired workouts designed by former Major League Soccer player Michael Chabala, which combine treadmill play with sideline medicine ball work.
- Biorhythms Jet Lag Recovery Treatment, which restores the body's natural rhythms and aids in jet lag recovery. An ionizing scrub and mud wrap renew energy while a Kundalini back massage balances the chakras and nervous system.
- Final Wedding Day Preparations, with a morning of rejuvenating treatments followed by a light lunch poolside before the wedding festivities get underway.

Hotel Alessandra

Hotel Alessandra's Spa by Alessandra is elegant, intimate (just two treatment rooms with downtown views) and has become a really popular amenity for hotel guests as well as locals. A bonus perk is that treatments come with full-day access to the hotel's adjacent fitness center and rooftop pool.

Here's another treat: the hotel offers monthly mixology classes – a ticketed, hands-on, weekly event limited to small groups. Each month, the theme changes, and these are available for private bookings as well.

The Moran Hotel/LifeSpa at CityCentre

On Houston's West Side, you'll find the boutique Moran Hotel at CityCentre — convenient to the Memorial and Energy Corridor neighborhoods. Hotel guests looking for a massage or salon service during their stay have access to the LifeSpa inside LifeTime Athletic Club, just across the street from the Moran. LifeSpa is a luxurious full-service spa with skin, hair, nail and massage treatments. Guests can also use the club on the day of the service.

Post Oak Hotel

The Spa at The Post Oak Hotel received the prestigious Forbes Five Star rating within just three months of opening. It is Texas' only spa to have earned this honor. Some "above and beyond" treatments include:

- The "Rituals of Five Worlds", a signature treatment featuring a warmed, steam poultice massage and gentle body stretching with a medicinal, Javanese fusion of lemongrass, bergamot and ginger, meant to release muscular tension.
- The "Ko Bi Do Lift" is a highly-effective and non-invasive face lift that begins with an in-depth purification of the skin. An intense massage lifting technique is performed, exercising the facial muscles and contouring the face for a toned, plumping effect.

- The Post Oak Hotel is the only hotel in Texas to feature the In-Skin facial system that seamlessly integrates six high-performance functions to deliver a results-oriented facial experience. The Spa's "In-Skin Ultimate Radiant Complexion" is a two-hour superior treatment featuring microdermabrasion, oxygen, LED lighting, radio frequency, electroporation and air massage.

Royal Sonesta Houston

This hotel has one of the only true chef's tables of its kind in the city, with seating for 10. What makes TableOne unique in terms of access is that it can be booked like traditional seating for as few as two guests with a four-course menu of the day, or with 72-hours' notice, guests can work with the chef to customize a five, eight, or ten-course menu for a minimum of six guests.

FAMILY-FRIENDLY GETAWAY

BRINGING THE BROOD TO HOUSTON? Get ready, because H-Town and the surrounding coastal area is jam-packed with exciting things to see and do, year-round. Read on for three, activity-filled days navigating top area attractions and offerings.

MORNING: Off to outer space. Experience more than 400 things to see and do at Space Center Houston, the Official Visitor Center of NASA Johnson Space Center – and Houston's first Smithsonian Affiliate institution.

AFTERNOON: Beach trip! Historic Galveston offers 32 miles of beaches, including the family-friendly Stewart Beach at 201 Seawall Blvd. This beach offers lounge chair and umbrella rentals, clean rest rooms, and lifeguards. Public showers let you rinse off the sand before you jump in your car.

EVENING: Your trip to Galveston isn't complete without visiting The Historic Strand District. The Strand is a National Historic Landmark that features antique shops, art galleries, restaurants, souvenir stores and more, all housed in century-old architecture from Galveston's heydays in the 1800s and 1900s. Next stop: the Galveston Island Historic Pleasure Pier, featuring waterfront fun and entertainment for the whole family, including rides, midway games, food and retail shops.

MORNING: Get an early start! The Houston Zoo, one of “The Best Zoos for Kids” in the nation, according to Parents magazine, opens at 9AM. Be sure to bring your membership card for your hometown zoo along, as the Houston Zoo partners with more than 100 zoos across the country to offer discounts to its members. Check out the new Kathryn G. McGovern Texas Wetlands exhibit – with cranes, alligators and eagles. Stay for lunch at the Cypress Circle Café, a green-certified “conscientious café” with delicious fare. Food trucks also abound.

AFTERNOON: Stroll on over to the world-class Children’s Museum of Houston. Rain or shine, it’s crazy fun for all kids, featuring 90,000 square feet of interactive and bilingual exhibitions. Kids can run their own city and compile their own TV news reports at Kidtropolis, make their own gadgets in the Invention Convention exhibit, and check out the forces of hydropower at FlowWorks. If time allows, the fascinating Health Museum is just steps away, with the DeBakey Cell Lab for science experiments.

EVENING: It’s a short walk back to Hermann Park. This 45-acre urban oasis is the perfect place to spend an early evening with kids, whether it’s riding the train along Hermann Park Railroad or pedal boating on McGovern Lake (both are open until 6 pm). If no naps are in order, stick around for free music, dance, and kid-friendly performances at Miller Outdoor Theatre. Have a picnic under the stars, while the whole family is entertained by a family-friendly performance, free for guests seated on the lawn.

MORNING: The Houston Museum of Natural Science, one of the most visited museums in the U.S., features the Wortham IMAX Theatre, Burke Baker Planetarium, Cockrell Butterfly Center, permanent exhibit halls and traveling exhibitions. The museum opens at 9AM and is one of the best discovery places for kids and adults, alike.

AFTERNOON: Time to explore the great outdoors! Let your kiddos’ curiosity take hold at Houston Arboretum & Nature Center, where they’ll learn about native plants and wildlife through self-guided or guided tours. There are plenty of interactive exhibits and activities amongst more than five miles of trails. Be sure to check out the Discovery Room in the Nature Center, where even more interactive (and air-conditioned) education is available.

EVENING: Witness 250,000 bats emerge at dusk from under the Waugh Drive Bridge, located just a few miles away, over Buffalo Bayou between Allen Parkway and Memorial Drive. Watch them from a special deck beside the bridge or take one of the Buffalo Bayou Partnership’s Waugh Bridge Bat Colony Pontoon Boat Tours.

AROUND

THE CITY IS JUST THE START.

The Greater Houston region is home to some of the most eclectic and intriguing places in the state. From historic sites to natural escapes, there is plenty to see and do in the 14 communities surrounding Houston. This spring and summer, discover more when you venture beyond the expected and explore Around Houston.

Those looking to spend their day on the water can dip their toes in the sand at Galveston's family friendly Stewart Beach. If you're sans kids for the weekend and looking to party, East Beach is famous for its great festivals and live concerts during the summer months. A quieter piece of the coast awaits those who find themselves at Surfside Beach in the Brazosport area, where miles of sandy beaches create the perfect retreat for surfers, families and fishermen alike.

Take to the sea at Bay Area Houston, often called the "Boating Capital of Texas" where you can sail, take a day cruise, enjoy the high life on a yacht and more. If you want to get out of a boat and onto the water, Lake Conroe is a destination where aquatic sports abound. Rent a set of HydroRockets and propel in and out of the lake via these unique water shoes. Don't forget about the mini thrill seekers in your family! Kids are sure to enjoy a day at Pirates Bay Waterpark in Baytown where they can slide and swim until the sun sets.

Birdwatchers will also find the coastal area appealing with many opportunities to glimpse more than 600 species of birds passing through the Central Flyway during spring migration in Port Arthur, Beaumont, and many others. Land lovers will find plenty to explore as well Around Houston. Hikers can enjoy the only long-distance National Recreation Trail in the state just north of Conroe. In fact, the Lone Star Hiking Trail is a 140-mile trail that travels through the Sam Houston National Forest near Huntsville.

Texas history comes to life at Deer Park's Patrick's Cabin. Patrick's Cabin is a historical representation of the site where the initial treaty papers were drafted following the Battle of San Jacinto and is a great stop before a visit to the San Jacinto Monument, itself. The area is also rich in train history and visitors can see memorabilia at Downtown Tomball's 1907 Railroad Depot Museum or walk through the Alvin Historical Train Depot, one of the original stops for passengers awaiting the Santa Fe Rail Line.

Around Houston is also home to two world-class performing arts facilities. See your favorite musician at The Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion in The Woodlands where the grassy hill and open-air environment provide a concert ambiance unlike any other. Or check out the brand-new Sugar Land Smart Financial Center where comedy acts, performers and musicians play to suites and seats in an intimate setting.

Lastly, don't leave the area without tasting delicious racks of ribs and slices of brisket in Pearland at Killen's Barbecue! Inspired by old school BBQ cook-offs, acclaimed chef Ronnie Killen's vision adds flavor beyond measure to this cool town just south of Houston.

The Houston area is home to more than meets the eye. Check it out for yourself by day tripping outside of the city to explore what you can find Around Houston. Plan your day here: www.visitthouston.com/daytrips

SUGAR LAND

Constellation Field

Byond Houston, discover the unexpected. While only 20 minutes from downtown Houston, Sugar Land feels a world away. A high concentration of attractions are located within a short drive or walk from each other inside its city limits, including a world class baseball park, natural history museum, and the Smart Financial Centre at Sugar Land, which is one of the nation's top entertainment venues hosting A-list performers.

For the discerning shopper, Sugar Land features over 30 shopping areas with businesses ranging from established retailers to local boutiques. At First Colony Mall, you can find more than 1-million square feet of shopping and dining, with established retailers like Macy's, Dillard's and brands like Coach, Fossil and Michael Kors. Nearby, there is the Market at Town Center that features outlet-style shopping such as Saks Fifth Avenue OFF 5th, Nordstrom Rack, DSW, Home Goods, and more for deal-finders.

Within walking distance, take a stroll through Sugar Land Town Square, where there are various dining, shopping, events, and nightlife options. No matter what mood you're in, surely, you'll find something captivating and sweet to end your visit.

Beyond the city's shopping scene, Sugar Land also boasts world-class performing arts, educational exhibits and plenty of year-round, action-packed entertainment.

Experience a face-to-face encounter with larger-than-life Devil Rex at the Houston Museum of Natural Science at Sugar Land. Enjoy an outer-space adventure in the Hall of Space Science. Children can also become archaeologists at the museum's Dig Pit as they search for dinosaurs under the watchful gaze of a prehistoric Archelon, the largest sea turtle ever discovered.

Young adventure seekers will love the Fort Bend Children's Discovery Center. Located at the historical Imperial Sugar refinery site, children under 12 can experience five hands-on, minds-on exhibits, including Kidtropolis, How Does It Work?, and Tot*Spot.

For A-list performances, head to the Smart Financial Centre at Sugar Land for national headliners like Santana, Tony Bennett, Petatonix, and Willie Nelson to out-of-this-world performances from artists like magician David Blaine.

Catch some sun rays and a baseball game at Constellation Field, home to the Sugar Land Skeeters—Sugar Land's minor-league baseball team. This multipurpose facility hosts a wide-range of sporting and live-entertainment events, including baseball games, and cheerleading.

Baytown's Umbrella Alley

What's on your BAYTOWN BUCKET LIST?

Ever dream of kayaking in the reflection of the San Jacinto monument or running across one of the largest stay-cable bridges in the world? Excursions to Baytown offer many exciting BUCKET LIST options from geocaching to a night at the theater!

Take a romantic trip to Yepez Vineyard or enjoy performances at the Lee College Performing Arts Center and Baytown Little Theater.

Wildlife and birding enthusiasts will appreciate the Baytown Nature Center and Eddie Gray Wetlands Center, both situated among the waterways that once witnessed the decisive battle of the Texas Revolution.

For family fun, spend the day by the water, where Baytown's Pirate's Bay Waterpark thrills children of all ages. Houston Raceway Park is also a popular destination hosting year-round events such as the NHRA Spring Nationals.

Explore all of Baytown's charming tourist spots through the official GeoTour (gt7a), an unique scavenger hunt that takes participants on a complete Baytown tour. Looking for the perfect selfie spot? Check out the Baytown Art-Venture which guides visitors through murals, sculptures, and architectural pieces all while earning fun prizes.

Settled just 30 minutes east of Houston and 45 minutes north of Galveston, Baytown is conveniently located in the Gulf Coast region.

For more information about Baytown, including dining, accommodations, and events, download our mobile app or visit us online at www.VisitBaytown.com.

GETTING AROUND

HOW DO INSIDERS GET AROUND HOUSTON? Easy-to-navigate highways, robust public transportation, and car- and bike-share programs simplify your trip. The city also features many walkable neighborhoods so you can explore at your own pace.

METRORAIL/Buses

Local bus and metrorail fares are just $1.25 each way throughout the city. With more than 100 routes and 1,250 buses, there's sure to be one going your way. The three METRORAIL lines link to popular destinations like Downtown, Rice University, University of Houston, Texas Medical Center and the Theater District.

Rental Cars

The rental car facility at Bush Intercontinental Airport (IAH) centralizes the operations of 11 rental car companies, providing a modern and efficient system for air travelers to secure local transportation. At Hobby Airport (HOU), passengers find eight major rental car agencies represented at booths in the baggage claim area. Travelers will also find Zipcars available throughout central Houston which can be rented on the Zipcar app and reserved for as little as an hour or as long as a week.

Shuttles

SuperShuttle provides ground transportation services at IAH and HOU. The service takes reservations and transports travelers between Houston's major business and entertainment districts and the airport. Several airport-area hotels also offer courtesy van pickup.

Jitney

Need to get around Houston for a special event or a night on the town? Catch The Wave – a taxi, limo and public bus hybrid that provides patrons with a fixed-rate, fixed-route circulator.

Taxi Cabs

Nabbing one of the 2,400 cabs in Houston's fleet got easier with an increased number of downtown taxi stands and cab hailing zones. Of course, if you have a smartphone, catching a ride is easy with Yellow Cab's Hail-A-Cab app, Lone Star Cab Co.'s Curb app or the Arro app, the latter of which works with taxi companies and other vehicles for hire.

Ride Sharing

Houston was the first city in Texas to approve ride-sharing services like Uber and Lyft. Learn more and download the smartphone apps at Uber.com and Lyft.com.

BCycle Bike Sharing

Hop on a bike and see the city! Houston BCycle operates bike rental stations around the city to foster recreation, mobility and personal wellness. B-Stations can be found throughout Houston – Downtown, Midtown, Third Ward, East End, Near Northside, Heights, University of Houston, Rice University and more. Download their app for all the information

Walk

Walk Score ranks the most walkable neighborhoods in the United States and here are some of their top picks for Houston. Spend the day exploring each neighborhood's unique mix of independent restaurants, coffee shops, wine and cocktail bars, book stores, antique shops, fitness facilities and personalized services.

Discovery Green

OUTDOORS

WITH MORE THAN 300 MILES OF TRAILS, 165 public and private golf courses and 50,632 acres of parkland, Houston offers endless opportunities to soak up the great outdoors.

EXPLORE Channel your inner ecotourist inside the Loop at the Houston Arboretum & Nature Center – open daily with free admission. The 155-acre preserve features shaded hiking trails, wildlife and classes for all ages. For more area scenery, kayak or canoe through the meandering channels of Armand Bayou Nature Center or go birding along the Upper Texas Coast Wildlife Trail.

RUN Crank up the cardio with health-conscious Houstonians at Memorial Park. The 1,500-acre urban expanse offers more than just golf, swimming, tennis, hiking and cycling—it also contains 20 miles of trails. Jonesing for more?

Buffalo Bayou Park, Cullen Park, Terry Hershey Park and the Rice University jogging trail are also among locals’ faves. Challenge yourself and run the hills at Spotts Park just outside downtown.

LOUNGE Skip the workout and kick back instead at Discovery Green, McGovern Centennial Gardens or Emancipation Park, the crown jewel of Third Ward near UH. Don’t miss the Upper Kirby District’s 5.9 acre Levy Park with dog park, community gardens, a performance pavilion, event lawn and a sprawling playground.

For more information on parks and outdoors, log on to VisitHouston.com/Outdoors.
